Product Overview

Sleep disorder is also known as somnipathy. It is a medical condition where a disorder is generated in the sleep pattern or we can say that it is a group of disorders that impact the sleep pattern on a regular basis. The presence of sleep disorders can be ascribed to different factors including health issues, hectic schedules, and high stress. Lack of quality sleep has a negative impact on the overall health and level of concentration of a person. It leads to tiredness during the day.

Market Highlights

Global Sleep Disorder Market is expected to project a notable CAGR of 7.5% in 2031.

Mental stress is increasing due to hectic life & unhealthy habits are anticipated to propel the growth of the sleep disorder market. Furthermore, the growing usage of social media and increasing addiction to gadgets such as smartphones and laptops augment the market. In addition, the rise in public and private health coverage, covering sleep clinics is boosting the market.

Global Sleep Disorder Market: Segments

Insomnia segment to grow with the highest CAGR during 2021-31

Based on Disorder, the global Sleep Disorder Market is fragmented into Insomnia, Hypersomnia, Sleep Apnea, Sleep Breathing Disorders, Circadian Rhythm Disorders, Parasomnia, Sleep Movement Disorders. Insomnia is expected to dominate the global sleep disorders market through the forecast period. This can be attributed to the increasing frequency of insomnia, which causes an irresistible sudden loss of muscle tone and daytime sleepiness. The prevalence of sleep disorders has been expressively increasing over the years, which is expected to generate lucrative market growth opportunities.

Sleep apnea devices segment to grow with the highest CAGR during 2021-31

Global Sleep Disorder Market is classified on the basis of devices into sleep apnea devices, sleep laboratories, and mattresses & pillows. Based on the devices, sleep apnea devices are estimated to share the highest market in terms of revenue. Growing demand for early treatment and increasing patient awareness are the major factors estimated to boost the demand for such devices. Furthermore, large number of patient pool seeking for effective diagnosis and treatments are expected to generate lucrative market growth opportunities.

Market Dynamics

Drivers

Increasing awareness regarding the sleep disorders

Increasing awareness about sleep disease among the people and governments of different nations is expected to propel the sleep disorders treatment market. The increasing number of people suffering from various sleep disorders, including hallucinations, sleep paralysis, disrupted nocturnal sleep, insomnia, sleep apnea, narcolepsy, and circadian disorders, caught the attention of governments globally, pushing them to take necessary steps to address this condition.

Product innovation and adoption of different strategies by key market participants

The market is witnessing the development and launch of products that comply with regulatory guidelines. Approval and commercialization of new drugs is expected to create lucrative opportunities for the players operating in the global market during the review period.

Restraint

Side-effects associated with a sleep disorder

An increase in patent expirations and related side effects of these drugs would impede the market growth during the forecast period.
