Abstracts

The global 3D printing filament market is expected to increase by USD 1,056.0 million, at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 17.9% from 2022 to 2028, according to the latest edition of the Global 3D Printing Filament Market Report.

This industry report offers market estimates of the global market, followed by a detailed analysis of the type, end user, and region. The global market data on 3D printing filament can be segmented by type: metals, plastics, ceramics, others. Among these, the plastics segment was accounted for the highest revenue generator in 2021. 3D printing filament market is further segmented by end user: aerospace and defense, automotive, electronics, healthcare, others. The medical segment is estimated to account for the largest share of the global 3D printing filament market. Based on region, the 3D printing filament market is segmented into: North America, Europe, Asia-Pacific, MEA (Middle East and Africa), Latin America. Europe held the largest share of the global 3D printing filament market in 2021 and is anticipated to hold its share during the forecast period.

The metals market is further segmented into stainless steel, titanium, others. The stainless steel segment captured the largest share of the market in 2021 and is expected to maintain its dominance during the forecast period. Furthermore, the plastics market has been categorized into acrylonitrile butadiene styrene (ABS), nylon, polyethylene terephthalate (PET), polylactic acid (PLA), others. According to the research, the PLA segment had the largest share in the global 3D printing filament market.

The global 3D printing filament market is highly competitive. Some of the leading companies operating in the market are BASF SE, Arkema S.A., ColorFabb B.V.,

Covestro AG, Dow Inc., Evonik Industries AG, Keene Village Plastics, Materialise NV, Mitsubishi Chemical Corporation, Royal DSM N.V., Saudi Basic Industries Corporation (SABIC), Solvay S.A., Stratasys Ltd., Victrex Manufacturing Limited.

The data-centric report focuses on market trends, status and outlook for segments. With comprehensive market assessment across the major geographies, the report is a valuable asset for the existing players, new entrants and the future investors.

Why buy this report?

Get a detailed picture of the Global 3D Printing Filament Market

Identify segments/areas to invest in over the forecast period in the Global 3D Printing Filament Market

Understand the competitive environment, the market's leading players
