Abstracts

Biocatalysts are biological molecules, typically enzymes, that catalyze chemical reactions in living organisms. These enzymes are highly specific and can accelerate chemical reactions by several orders of magnitude. Biocatalysts are used in a wide range of industrial applications, including the production of pharmaceuticals, food additives, and biofuels. They are also used in bioremediation, the process of using microorganisms to degrade or remove pollutants from the environment. The global biocatalysts market is likely to register a CAGR of over 6.55% with an incremental growth of USD 263.0 million during the forecast period 2023-2029.

The report covers market size and growth, segmentation, regional breakdowns, competitive landscape, trends and strategies for global biocatalysts market.
