Abstracts

Bone biopsy uses a needle and imaging guidance to remove a small sample of bone for examination under a microscope. Bone biopsies may be used to confirm a diagnosis of a bone disease, investigate an abnormality, determine the cause of pain or infection, or distinguish a bone tumor from other diseases. A bone biopsy is less invasive than a surgical biopsy because the procedure may not require general anesthesia. According to the latest estimates, the global bone biopsy market is set to achieve an incremental growth of USD 225.9 million, accelerating at a CAGR of almost 5.4% during the forecast period 2023-2029.
