This industry report offers market estimates of the global market, followed by a detailed analysis of the component, type, waste type, source of waste, and region. The global market data on intelligent waste management systems can be segmented by component: hardware, software. Intelligent waste management systems market is further segmented by type: biological treatment, chemical treatment, landfill, others. The landfill segment held the largest revenue share in 2021. Based on waste type, the intelligent waste management systems market is segmented into: hazardous waste, liquid waste, organic waste, recyclable waste, solid waste. Globally, the solid waste segment made up the largest share of the intelligent waste management systems market. On the basis of source of waste, the intelligent waste management systems market also can be divided into: domestic, electronics, healthcare, hospitality, industrial, others. Intelligent waste management systems market by region is categorized into: Asia Pacific, Europe, North America, Rest of the World (RoW).

The hardware market is further segmented into smart bins, waste management machines, sensors. Furthermore, the software market has been categorized into database management system (DBMS), fleet monitoring software, waste notification software, waste separation software. In 2021, the fleet monitoring software segment made up the largest share of revenue generated by the intelligent waste management systems market.

The global intelligent waste management systems market is highly competitive. The competitive landscape of the industry has also been examined along with the profiles of the key players Bigbelly Solar Inc., Bine Sp. z o.o., Covanta Holding Corporation, Enevo AS, Evreka Yaz?l?m Donan?m Dan?smarl?k Egitim San. ve Tic. A.S., International Business Machines Corporation, SENSONEO j.s.a., SUEZ SA, Tata Consultancy Services Ltd., Veolia Environnement S.A., Waste Management Inc.

The data-centric report focuses on market trends, status and outlook for segments. With comprehensive market assessment across the major geographies, the report is a valuable asset for the existing players, new entrants and the future investors.
