Highlights

Snam SpA (Snam) is an integrated midstream energy company. It carries out the regasification, transportation, storage and supply of natural gas. The company transports and dispatches natural gas through transportation network, dispatch center, supervisory districts, management centers, and compressor stations. Snam also offers engineering and technical-operational services for gas operators in national and international markets. The company Rete Gas, its subsidiary, transports natural gas; GNL Italia conducts regasification; and Stogit stores natural gas. It procures natural gas through import, and injects it into the national gas network through entry points in pipelines used for import from Russia, Northern Europe and North Africa. The company operates through associate companies in Austria, France, and the UK. Snam is headquartered in San Donato Milanese, Italy.
