Abstracts

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Derma Cosmetics market size was valued at US$ million in 2024 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD million by 2031 with a CAGR of %during review period.

The field of dermo-cosmetics is a branch of science that combines cosmetology and dermatology. Simply put, it refers to specialized skin care products produced in consultation with dermatologists to improve the appearance of skin and treat various skin issues.

The total size of the global beauty industry in 2022 was about US$ 427 billion, with the sales of skin care products was about US$ 190 billion, perfumes US$ 70 billion, color cosmetics US$ 80 billion, hair care products US$ 90 billion. Head beauty and personal care companies are concentrated in Europe and the United States. More than one-third of the top 100 companies are headquartered in the United States, and 22.9% of the companies are located in France.

The derma cosmetics market is rapidly gaining prominence, with its size continuously expanding and sales steadily increasing. These cosmetics find extensive applications in the beauty and skincare sectors, particularly targeting skin concerns such as acne, sensitivity, and aging. In the future, derma cosmetics are poised for sustained development, driven by their emphasis on high-quality ingredients, scientific research and development, and compatibility with skin physiology. This will further bolster the market in an era increasingly focused on health and natural beauty.
