Abstracts

According to our latest research, the global Factoring Services market size will reach USD million in 2031, growing at a CAGR of %over the analysis period.

Factoring services involve a financial arrangement where a business sells its accounts receivable (invoices) to a third party, known as a factor, at a discount. This provides the business with immediate cash flow, improving liquidity and allowing for smoother operations. The factor assumes the responsibility of collecting the receivables and may also manage the credit control and debtor management processes. Factoring can be beneficial for companies that need quick access to funds without waiting for the usual credit terms of 30 to 90 days. It helps businesses to maintain steady cash flow, invest in growth opportunities, and handle operating expenses more efficiently.
