Abstracts

In the healthcare industry, having access to the right information at the right moment is critical. Without business intelligence tools capitalizing upon the stockpiles of operational and patient data, healthcare organizations are not using all of the information at hand to make informed decisions. And it is more than just business efficiency that hangs in the balance. Patient care and outcomes are directly impacted by these decisions. There is an unprecedented amount of data available to medical professionals today, and nearly limitless opportunities to leverage that data. With today's affordable software, it has never been so important or so easy for healthcare to invest in business intelligence.
