Career Transition Consulting, or Career Transition Services, is a professional service that assists individuals in making successful transitions between careers or jobs. It is a form of human resource service that has emerged and gained popularity in recent years, particularly in the context of company changes such as mergers, acquisitions, reorganizations, or office relocations that may lead to layoffs or the elimination of certain positions.

This consulting service typically involves one-on-one coaching, group training, and other career planning and job search support provided by professional consultants or career coaches. The goal is to help individuals affected by such changes to establish their personal career orientation, navigate the job market more effectively, and ultimately achieve a smoother and faster transition to their next career stage.
