Career Transition and Outplacement are services provided by organizations to assist employees who are undergoing job changes or transitions, often due to factors such as layoffs, downsizing, restructuring, or retirement. These services are designed to support employees in finding new employment opportunities or navigating their career paths after leaving their current positions. Career transition and outplacement services aim to help employees transition smoothly to new roles while also supporting the organization in managing workforce changes with care and responsibility.

The use of digital platforms and tools for career transition and outplacement services is increasing. Virtual career coaching, webinars, online job search platforms, and AI-driven career assessments are becoming more prominent.
