Abstracts

Cashmere clothing is made from cashmere and cashmere yarn, including various sweaters, coats, trousers and other garments.

Scope of the Report:

This report focuses on the Cashmere Clothing in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application.

China is the world's largest supplier of raw materials, accounting for about 70% of cashmere in the world, while Italy is China's largest export destination, in April 2017; Italy imported 98 tons of cashmere from China, Account 78% of the month's exports.

China is also the largest consumption market, due to the rapid growth of the national economy as well as people's gradual improvement of life quality. Many famous brands have targeted in the region, like Loro Piana and Brunello Cucinelli. Although China is the largest cashmere garment manufacturer in the world, its own brand market share is very low. Most of them exist as OEM. This has led to the local enterprises in China at the bottom of the interests of the value chain for a long time.

United States also players an important role in the global cashmere clothing industry. In 2016, the country consumed about 3.5 million units, holding more than 19% share globally.

Asia region is the major manufacturing bases due to the low labor cost and material cost. Most famous brands have their plants or cooperative manufacturers in the region.

In addition, when considering the whole industry market value, the fashion luxury cashmere clothing market is relatively concentrated, the top 20 manufacturers account for more than 50% share.

The worldwide market for Cashmere Clothing is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly 3.8% over the next five years, will reach 3230 million US$ in 2023, from 2580 million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
