Abstracts

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Casinos market size was valued at USD 72290 million in 2023 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD 104270 million by 2030 with a CAGR of 5.4% during review period.

Casinos are establishments where people can participate in various forms of gambling, and the casino industry generates high revenues from these activities.

In 2017, the top four players account for an estimated 9.2% of industry revenue. This is mainly due to the geographically diverse nature of the industry, as well as the increasingly diverse range of products that have come to market with the introduction of online gambling. For example, within certain locals, such as Macau and Singapore, the industry is concentrated among just a few players, mainly due to the strict regulatory framework the industry is governed by.

The Global Info Research report includes an overview of the development of the Casinos industry chain, the market status of On-line (Gambling Machines, Gaming Tables), Off-line (Gambling Machines, Gaming Tables), and key enterprises in developed and developing market, and analysed the cutting-edge technology, patent, hot applications and market trends of Casinos.

Regionally, the report analyzes the Casinos markets in key regions. North America and Europe are experiencing steady growth, driven by government initiatives and increasing consumer awareness. Asia-Pacific, particularly China, leads the global Casinos market, with robust domestic demand, supportive policies, and a strong manufacturing base.
