Abstracts

A charter flight refers to a flight that is not part of a regular airline's scheduled service but is arranged directly between an airline and a customer or group of customers. Unlike commercial airlines that operate scheduled flights with fixed routes and timetables, charter flights are often tailored to the specific needs and preferences of the charterer.

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Charter Flight market size was valued at US$ 4293 million in 2023 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD 7699 million by 2030 with a CAGR of 8.3% during review period.

GCC core Charter Flight include Saudia Airline, Abu Dhabi Aviation and Qatar Airways. The top three companies hold about 54% of the market. Saudi Arabia is the largest charter market in the GCC with a market share of around 37%, followed by the United Arab Emirates and Qatar with a market share of 34% and 14% respectively. In terms of product type, Private Charter is the largest segment with approximately 72% market share, while in terms of applications, Passengers are the largest downstream segment with approximately 67% market share.

This report is a detailed and comprehensive analysis for global Charter Flight market. Both quantitative and qualitative analyses are presented by company, by region & country, by Type and by Application. As the market is constantly changing, this report explores the competition, supply and demand trends, as well as key factors that contribute to its changing demands across many markets. Company profiles and product examples of selected competitors, along with market share estimates of some of the selected leaders for the year 2024, are provided.
