Abstracts

Dental chairs are compact, space-saving equipment that can be adjusted for height, backrest, and armrest to provide support to patients and HCPs. Dental chairs are used by dentists. They have a foot switch, an imaging system, a balance arm, an operating light, an X-ray viewer, and an extended tray attached to them.

Scope of the Report:

This report focuses on the Dental Chairs in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application.

The increasing of product bundling will be one of the latest trends that will gain traction in the dental chairs market during the next four years. The manufacturers in the market are offering other product along with dental chairs, for instance Midmark has extended its promotional program, which is called the Midmark Corporation Game Changer Operatory Promotion, to offer significant price reductions on select product bundles. This will help manufacturers to increase their market penetration and sales for their product, such initiatives will drive the growth of the market.

Owing to the presence of a several regional and global manufacturers, this market appears highly fragmented and competitive. The manufacturers in the market are competing based on the price, quality, delivery time, service and support, warranty, product design, and product portfolio. The players in the market are increasing their market penetration by marketing their products through various distribution channels. This market study estimates that in terms of geographic regions, EMEA will be the major revenue contributor to the market. The growing adoption of technologically advanced dental chairs and increasing number of dentists in the region due to increasing focus on preventive care will propel the market growth. The replacement of dental offices and laboratories with dental chairs with dental chairs with advanced technology will drive the market growth in the forecast period.

The worldwide market for Dental Chairs is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
