Abstracts

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Early Education Picture Books market size was valued at US$ million in 2025 and is forecast to a readjusted size of US$ million by 2032 with a CAGR of %during review period.

The driving factors for the development of early education picture books mainly include the following aspects:

Promotion of national policies: As the country attaches great importance to early childhood education, relevant policies have been continuously introduced to encourage and support the development of early education picture books. For example, the state's promotion of children's reading plans and heavy investment in preschool education have provided strong policy support for the development of early education picture books.

Parents attach great importance to education: Parents attach more and more importance to early childhood education. They realize the important role of picture books in children's growth and are willing to invest more time and money in purchasing high-quality early education picture books.

Increase in children's interest in reading: As children grow older, their interest in reading gradually increases. Early education picture books stimulate children's interest in reading and cultivate their reading habits through rich and colorful contents and forms, further promoting the development of early education picture books.

Improvement of the landscape and services of the children's picture book library: As an important place for providing early education picture books, the improvement of the landscape and service quality of the children's picture book library also provides support for the development of early education picture books. Excellent picture book libraries not only provide rich picture book resources, but also improve children's awareness and interest in picture books by holding various reading activities, lectures, etc.

Promoted by technological progress: With the advancement of technology, digital reading has gradually become a trend. New reading forms such as electronic picture books and AR picture books provide more possibilities for early education picture books and further promote the innovation and development of early education picture books.
