According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Educational Services market size was valued at USD 1325510 million in 2023 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD 1932230 million by 2030 with a CAGR of 5.5% during review period.

Education is an important part of life. The amount and type of education that individuals receive is a major influence on both the types of jobs they are able to hold and their earnings. Lifelong learning is important in acquiring new knowledge and upgrading one's skills, particularly in this age of rapid technological and economic changes. The educational services industry includes a variety of institutions that offer academic education, career and technical instruction, and other education and training to millions of students each year.

Against the background of global trends, there are serious changes in the educational sphere. The transition to the knowledge society and the growth of demand for higher education leads to new requirements for universities. The erosion of the national framework of educational policy and the beginning of a higher education market without borders necessitate development of a new educational policy. The article analyzes the educational market changes under the influence of global trends, reveals the route of these changes and expands the problems faced by universities while taking the path of internationalization of its educational activities.

The Global Info Research report includes an overview of the development of the Educational Services industry chain, the market status of Adult (Skill Education, Language Education), Teen (Skill Education, Language Education), and key enterprises in developed and developing market, and analysed the cutting-edge technology, patent,
