Abstracts

Fine arts logistics includes transportation, packaging, storage, and import clearance of fine arts collectibles, such as arts, paintings, antiques, and sculptures.

Scope of the Report:

This report studies the Fine Arts Logistics market status and outlook of Global and major regions, from angles of players, countries, product types and end industries; this report analyzes the top players in global market, and splits the Fine Arts Logistics market by product type and applications/end industries.

The demand for fine arts logistics services is high because the private sales of fine arts products through dealers and galleries was strong. Art dealers and galleries will continue to grow during the projected period because fine art galleries enhance the brand value of the arts products. UAE, South Korea, India, and Japan are the major countries witnessing a rising demand for these fine arts products.

The Americas generated a total art sales of more than USD 14 billion, which in turn, fueled the need for fine arts logistics in countries such as the US. The US has more than 14,500 galleries and art dealers. The market will continue to grow in this region during the next few years due to the increasing trade of fine arts such as collector pieces, artworks, and antiques into North America.

The global Fine Arts Logistics market is valued at xx million USD in 2017 and is expected to reach xx million USD by the end of 2023, growing at a CAGR of xx% between 2017 and 2023.

The Asia-Pacific will occupy for more market share in following years, especially in China, also fast growing India and Southeast Asia regions.

North America, especially The United States, will still play an important role which cannot be ignored. Any changes from United States might affect the development trend of Fine Arts Logistics.

Europe also play important roles in global market, with market size of xx million USD in 2017 and will be xx million USD in 2023, with a CAGR of xx%.
