Abstracts

Foosball, which is also known as table football or table soccer, is a table top game which is played by players turning rods fixed on top of a playing box and attached to miniature figures of players, in order to flick the ball and strike it towards the goal.

Scope of the Report:

This report focuses on the Foosball Equipments in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application.

The sporting goods retailers segment accounted for the major shares and dominated this market. Sporting goods retailers offer popular brands of foosball equipment and are, thus, attractive shopping destinations for the consumers in the market. Factors such as the availability of a variety of products at one location will contribute to the growth of this industry segment in the coming years.

This market study estimates that in terms of geographic regions, the Americas will be the major revenue contributor to the market. Associations and federations in these regions promote the sport, encourage more players to participate in the various championships and tournaments that are conducted nationally and worldwide, and spread awareness and develop the game of foosball. Additionally, factors such as increasing urbanization, rising disposable income, and the emergence nuclear families have increased the demand for foosball equipment at home. Furthermore, the rise in the number of online stores is another factor that will contribute to an increase in the sales of foosball equipment in this region.

The worldwide market for Foosball Equipments is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
