Abstracts

Seafood is any form of sea life regarded as food by humans. Seafood prominently includes fish and shellfish. Shellfish include various species of molluscs, crustaceans, and echinoderms.

Scope of the Report:

This report focuses on the Fresh Fish & Seafood in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application.

In terms of geography, the APAC region dominated the global market for fresh food and seafood. In APAC, the consumer's recent shift towards food products that will help to prevent conditions such as joint weakening will augment the demand for nutrient-rich fish and seafood. Also, an increase in population and the presence of a large population of people who consume fish in this region will help to spur the prospects for market growth in APAC during the predicted period.

The supermarkets segment to be the largest market segment during the forecast period. At present, this market segment dominates the global market for fresh fish and seafood and is envisaged to retain its dominating hold over the market owing to the consumers' growing preference for convenience while shopping for such products.

The worldwide market for Fresh Fish & Seafood is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
