Abstracts

Frozen fish and seafood are packaged food items that are prepared by freezing the foods to preserve them from the time of their preparation to consumption.

Scope of the Report:

This report focuses on the Frozen Fish and Seafood in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application. The supermarkets and hypermarkets accounted for the major sales of frozen fish and seafood. The growth of the organized retail sector across the globe and the focus of supermarket and hypermarket players to stock various varieties of frozen fish and seafood from different brands, will be the major factors fueling the growth prospects of the market in this industry segment.

This market study estimates that in terms of geographic regions, EMEA will be the major revenue contributor to the market. The market's growth in the region will mainly attribute to factors such as the internal production of fish and seafood and the growing imports of frozen fish and seafood across the world.

The worldwide market for Frozen Fish and Seafood is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
