Abstracts

Gourmet ice cream can be defined as a high-quality premium frozen dessert. It is low in fat but high in sugar when compared to regular ice creams. Gourmet ice cream can be categorized into three product types primarily: Gelato, sorbet, and frozen custard. Besides, they can be also used as flavoring additives in cakes, pancakes, bread, doughs, and confectionery. The global gourmet ice cream market is moderately concentrated based on production and consumption in various countries.

Scope of the Report:

This report focuses on the Gourmet Ice Cream in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application. The increasing demand for premium products is identified as one of the key trends behind the growth of the gourmet ice cream market. The rising disposable incomes of the consumers, the rising standard of living, and the growing health consciousness of the consumers has influenced the consumer's demand for premium and gourmet ice cream items due to their higher quality, specific origin, fine flavors, and exotic and ethically sourced ingredients. The vendors in the gourmet ice cream market are incorporating newer flavors and ethnic ingredients and are also manufacturing ice cream products with reduced sugar and fat levels to cater to the elite customers. EMEA is expected to be the major revenue contributor to the gourmet ice cream market and this will be mainly influenced by the increasing number of gelaterias and premium ice cream parlors all over Europe. Additionally, the rising disposable incomes of people in this region will also contribute to the growth of this market.

The worldwide market for Gourmet Ice Cream is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
