Abstracts

Hotel travel accommodation refers to lodging service rented by travelers for the purpose of stay. The ideal choice of stay is determined depending upon multiple factors such as purpose & budget of travel accommodation, availability of the property, and mode of booking. Accommodation can be booked through various sources, which include online travel agencies, hotel websites, booking through agents, and direct bookings. Hotels offer a range of services primarily based on budget considerations.

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Hotel Travel Accommodation market size was valued at US$ 505420 million in 2023 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD 817140 million by 2030 with a CAGR of 7.0% during review period.

Luxury hotels target high-paying guests seeking exceptional services and premium room features, while budget-friendly accommodations provide cost-effective options to a broader demographic. The hotel industry has experienced substantial growth, driven significantly by the expanding tourism sector. The increasing number of individuals traveling for leisure and vacations has multiplied over the decades. This surge in leisure travel has directly stimulated the demand for hotels as preferred accommodation options for travelers. Simultaneously, the rise in international business activities across various regions has given impetus to professional tourism. Business-related events such as meetings, conferences, and exhibitions have witnessed an uptick, consequently fueling the demand for hotels as a preferred choice for travel accommodation.
