According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Intellectual and Developmental Disability Services market size was valued at USD million in 2022 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD million by 2029 with a CAGR of % during review period. The influence of COVID-19 and the Russia-Ukraine War were considered while estimating market sizes.

Intellectual and developmental disability service is evolving from a system focused on delivering services in large institutions, often remote from individual families and communities, to one based on flexible and dynamic supports and services. Services are provided near home and in the community, including community accommodation and day support services. Community housing options include group homes, studio apartments with roommates, or family living environments. People get support at home or in their own home. Provides day services, such as supported employment, training, and recreation, to people living in residential areas and at home. Families caring for a child or adult sibling with an intellectual disability also have access to a wide range of services and supports. Services include case management, mobility training, employment training, and opportunity and adult day care.
