Abstracts

The global Intellectual and Developmental Disability Services market size is expected to reach $ million by 2029, rising at a market growth of % CAGR during the forecast period (2023-2029).

Intellectual and developmental disability service is evolving from a system focused on delivering services in large institutions, often remote from individual families and communities, to one based on flexible and dynamic supports and services. Services are provided near home and in the community, including community accommodation and day support services. Community housing options include group homes, studio apartments with roommates, or family living environments. People get support at home or in their own home. Provides day services, such as supported employment, training, and recreation, to people living in residential areas and at home. Families caring for a child or adult sibling with an intellectual disability also have access to a wide range of services and supports. Services include case management, mobility training, employment training, and opportunity and adult day care.

This report studies the global Intellectual and Developmental Disability Services demand, key companies, and key regions.

This report is a detailed and comprehensive analysis of the world market for Intellectual and Developmental Disability Services, and provides market size (US$ million) and Year-over-Year (YoY) growth, considering 2022 as the base year.
