According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Intellectual Property Pledge Financing Service market size was valued at US$ million in 2025 and is forecast to a readjusted size of US$ million by 2032 with a CAGR of %during review period.

Intellectual Property (IP) Pledge Financing Service is a financial service that allows businesses or individuals to use their intellectual property (IP) assets as collateral to secure loans or financing. This form of financing leverages valuable IP assets such as patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets to obtain capital, providing an alternative to traditional collateral such as real estate or physical assets. IP pledge financing is particularly useful for companies with significant IP portfolios but limited physical assets.
