Abstracts

The global Jewelry eCommerce market size is expected to reach $ million by 2030, rising at a market growth of % CAGR during the forecast period (2024-2030).

eCommerce jewelry stores benefit from a connected world. Having a physical jewelry boutique before means that sales are limited to locals and shoppers traveling within the area. Online, jewelers gain access to billions of shoppers the moment the website goes live. It's possible to market to other countries, profit from additional regions, and speed up the growth of the business.

For jewelry brands, Asia is a region to watch. Jewelry purchases have boomed in the continent, particularly in China, which is now seen as a major luxury market. The region currently is responsible for 45% of all branded fine jewelry sales.
