Kratom and Kava Beverage is a type of drinks. It refers to liquid and solid beverage that have the functional materials of Kratom and Kava.

Kava is a traditional plant and beverage of the South Pacific. Kava (Piper methysticum) is an important ceremonial, traditional, and cash crop that grows throughout the Pacific. This evergreen shrub usually grows on hillsides or low mountains in moist and shady locations.

Kava is a legal herbal supplement that can be used for anxiety relief, stress relief, relaxation, and more.

Kratom is a tropical tree native to Southeast Asia. Kratom belongs to the coffee family. It grows on the tall Mitragyna Speciosa Korth tree native to Southeast Asia. The leaves of this plant are processed to become kratom. Originally, kratom was used by farmers to chew the leaves for energy. Kratom is often brewed as a tea. The legality of kratom varies. Some states require users to be 21 years of age or older; others prohibit its use. Kratom can produce stimulant-like effects, including alertness, energy, and physical euphoria. Kava can relax you and elevate your mood.

Kava and kratom are becoming popular alternatives to cocktails and coffee. Drinking kava and kratom is known to relieve anxiety and depression and to 'calm down' the user.

Kratom is more widely used as a stimulant or pain reliever, while kava is more commonly used to treat anxiety, stress, and insomnia.
