According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Legal Process Outsourcing (LPO) market size was valued at US$ 22800 million in 2024 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD 83030 million by 2031 with a CAGR of 20.5% during review period.

Legal outsourcing, also known as legal process outsourcing (LPO), refers to the practice of a law firm or corporation obtaining legal support services from an outside law firm or legal support services company (LPO provider). When the LPO provider is based in another country, the practice is called offshoring and involves the practice of outsourcing any activity except those where personal presence or contact is required, e.g. appearances in court and face-to-face negotiations. When the LPO provider is based in the same country, the practice of outsourcing includes agency work and other services requiring a physical presence, such as court appearances. This process is one of the incidents of the larger movement towards outsourcing. The most commonly offered services have been agency work, document review, legal research and writing, drafting of pleadings and briefs, and patent services.

The industry's leading producers are QuisLex, Unitedlex and American Discovery, with revenues of 8.21%, 4.09% and 3.35%, respectively, in 2019.
