Litigation is the formal process of resolving legal disputes. Individuals can use the civil court system to resolve a variety of issues, from personal injury claims to divorces to disputes surrounding breach of contract.Litigation Service means legal representation in court and tribunal proceedings provided by legal aid commissions, which is subject to a person's eligibility for a grant of legal aid.

Under the background of globalization, with the expansion of economic globalization, whether it is a foreign company investing in the host country or a host country enterprise engaged in transnational business, they need complex and high-quality legal services in all aspects of investment and operation. Therefore, The scale of the global litigation service market has grown steadily in recent years. From the perspective of the global litigation service competition pattern, old capitalist developed countries such as the United Kingdom and the United States have taken advantage of their economic first-mover advantages and accumulated traditional advantages of the rule of law to expand their litigation service market share around the world, with obvious competitive advantages. Driven by globalization, global litigation services are developing in the direction of globalization, scale, specialization, networking and externalization.
