Abstracts

Specialty Paper refers to the paper used in the special fields such as: packaging, printing, etc.

These papers are often used in a very special function, process or decorative way. A release liner used in a medical bandage that can be removed and reapplied to the skin several times without causing discomfort is a great example.

SCOPE OF THE REPORT:

This report focuses on the Specialty Paper in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application. Specialty papers, as their name implies, feature special products for special applications. In 2017, the total specialty paper and paperboard market consumption was 3025 K MT for Packaging & Labeling sectors. The Packaging and Labeling sector accounts for the largest volume, principally because of release papers, aseptic packaging, liquid packaging boards, and lightweight C1S packaging papers. This sector represents 41.13% of total specialty paper consumption in 2017.

In the future, United States market is expected to witness significant growth on account of rising applications, so in the next few years, Specialty Paper production will show a trend of steady growth. In 2025 the value of Specialty Paper is estimated to be 8578 Million USD.

The worldwide market for Specialty Paper is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
