Abstracts

Office and commercial coffee equipment and supplies refer to coffee brewers or coffee makers (equipment) and coffee preparation supplies, provided to different offices and commercial establishments and businesses across industries such as foodservice outlets and restaurants, healthcare, hospitality, retail, and others.

Scope of the Report:

This report focuses on the Office and Commercial Coffee Equipment and Supplies in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application.

Manufacturers in the office coffee machines market compete intensely due to the rapid innovations in coffee brewers, to offer varied products to consumers and end-users such as foodservice outlets. With the growing market requirement for product differentiation and wide distribution networks, the competition becomes intense. This encourages the manufacturers to launch new and innovative products.

Consumers are steadily demanding for premium coffee products such as gourmet coffee. Employees are investing in premium coffee and coffee-making equipment despite the high costs incurred. Additionally, to enhance their contribution to green environment, companies are steadily purchasing various varieties of coffee with sustainable green footprint. With the dropping prices of green coffee, companies are steadily opting for coffee that align with green initiatives. Also, the players in the office coffee machines market have high profit margins and they invest significantly in marketing premium coffee brands.

The worldwide market for Office and Commercial Coffee Equipment and Supplies is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
