Abstracts

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Online Consignment Platform market size was valued at US$ 2351 million in 2025 and is forecast to a readjusted size of US$ 5220 million by 2032 with a CAGR of 12.2% during review period.

An online consignment platform is a digital marketplace where individuals or businesses send products to the platform, and the platform helps list, market, and sell those products to buyers online. In this model, the original owner keeps ownership until the item is sold, and after the sale, the platform takes a commission or service fee, with the remaining amount paid to the consignor. These platforms are common in categories such as fashion, luxury goods, electronics, furniture, collectibles, and secondhand products.
