Abstracts

Marketing platforms consist of tools and integrations that help businesses automate marketing tasks, streamline workflows, and plan, implement, and measure omnichannel marketing campaigns. These platforms act as a company's central marketing database and provide automation across multiple marketing processes, including lead generation, email marketing, social media marketing, and digital advertising. In addition to automation, marketing platforms provide tools for measuring marketing performance. Marketing dashboards and custom reporting features help marketers identify effective marketing strategies so they can optimize campaigns and improve the business' return on investment (ROI). Some marketing platforms may double as a customer data platform (CDP) or offer enhanced functionality for social media marketing, A/B testing, and personalization.

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Marketing Platforms Software market size was valued at USD million in 2022 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD million by 2029 with a CAGR of % during review period.
