Pet insurance is a type of specialty property and casualty insurance policy that pet owners purchase to cover the unintended costs that arise in providing care for a pet, including veterinary services such as surgical procedures, injuries from accidents, and prescribed pet medicines. Pet insurance is purely a reimbursement program. A form of property and casualty insurance, pet insurance provides reimbursement to the owner after the pet has received required care and the owner submits a claim to the insurance company

According to Our PET Supplies Research Center, the global pet industry reached $ 261 billion in 2022, a year-on-year increase of 11.3%. The United States gains the highest pet penetration rate and becomes the largest pet market. According to the American Pet Products Association (APPA), 66% of American households keep pets, and the total industry sales was about US$136.8 billion, an increase of 10.8% over 2021. According to IVH, the German pet products industry association, the number of pets in Germany reached 33.4 million in 2022, with a total turnover of nearly ?6.5 billion. The 2023 China Pet Industry Trend Insight White Paper released by JD shows that the market size of the four major pet physical commodities is increasing year by year: pet supplies account for 45%, pet staple food accounts for nearly 35%, pet snacks account for 12%, and pet medicine and health care account for 418%.
