Abstracts

The global Pet Washing & Grooming market size is expected to reach $ 1580 million by 2032, rising at a market growth of 9.3% CAGR during the forecast period (2026-2032).

Pet Washing & Groomings refer to professional services providing cleaning, beautification, and health care for pets (primarily dogs and cats). These include bathing, hair trimming, brushing, nail trimming, ear cleaning, skin care, and styling. The purpose extends beyond maintaining a pet's neat and attractive appearance to preventing skin diseases, parasites, and other health issues. With the rise in pet ownership and the growing trend of “humanizing” pet consumption, pet grooming has evolved from basic cleaning into a comprehensive service integrating health management, styling, and leisure care. Primary industry models include in-store grooming, mobile grooming services, and online booking platforms, widely applied across related sectors such as pet retail, veterinary care, and boarding/leisure facilities.

Premium and Specialized Services

Evolving from basic grooming to styling, skincare, and spa services driven by pet humanization.

Chain and Brand Expansion

Shifting from independent shops to chain brands and standardized stores.

Digitalization and Online Booking

Using apps for booking, membership management, and customer retention.

Professionalization and Training

Increasing demand for certified groomers and standardized training systems.

Service Diversification

Expanding into boarding, veterinary services, retail, and home services.

Health and Safety Focus

Greater emphasis on safe products, hygiene standards, and skin health.

Mobile and On-demand Services

Growing demand for mobile grooming and on-demand services.

This report studies the global Pet Washing & Grooming demand, key companies, and key regions.
