Private trust service is a trust service provided for individuals or families, aiming to meet their needs in wealth management, asset protection, estate planning, etc.

Private trust service refers to a legal relationship in which an individual (property grantor) transfers his assets (trust assets) to another person (trustee), and the trustee holds and manages the assets in accordance with the trust deed, so that the beneficiary can benefit from it. This arrangement not only helps to maintain and increase the value of personal or family wealth, but also avoids cumbersome legal procedures when inheriting the estate, and achieves risk isolation and tax planning.
