Abstracts

The Public School Bus Services industry, which is primarily engaged in transportation of school students and faculty to and from school or other related locations, is projected to grow over five years. Economic expansion has eased pressure on state budgets and enabled moderate revenue growth during the period. Unremarkable revenue growth resulted in marginal increases in market share concentration, particularly as major operators pursue acquisitions to supplement organic growth.

Scope of the Report:

Much of the industry's steady growth is attributable to industry-wide acceptance of services among K-12 schools and parents. Great acceptance and steady growth are both signs of an industry in the mature stage of its life cycle. The industry experienced many mergers and acquisitions (M&A) over the past five years, which is further indicative of an industry in its mature phase.

The global School and Employee Bus Services market is valued at xx million USD in 2017 and is expected to reach xx million USD by the end of 2023, growing at a CAGR of xx% between 2017 and 2023.

The Asia-Pacific will occupy for more market share in following years, especially in China, also fast growing India and Southeast Asia regions.

North America, especially The United States, will still play an important role which cannot be ignored. Any changes from United States might affect the development trend of School and Employee Bus Services.
