Abstracts

For companies that do not have their own cloud services, they are working with other cloud service organizations to provide cloud-based subscription and billing management software for SMEs. The availability of low-cost features can help SMEs survive and provide fierce competition in the service market. Increasing sales by providing effective services and benefits, which enables SMEs to increase customer engagement. Increasing focus on providing a better customer experience and the need to automate manual billing and financial processes have made subscription and billing management software more widely used. The low cost and high adoption rate of cloud-based software is driving market growth.

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global SME Subscription and Billing Management market size was valued at USD million in 2022 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD million by 2029 with a CAGR of % during review period. The influence of COVID-19 and the Russia-Ukraine War were considered while estimating market sizes.
