Abstracts

The global Social Care Service market size is expected to reach $ 460964 million by 2032, rising at a market growth of 16.0% CAGR during the forecast period (2026-2032).

Social Care Service refers to a comprehensive support system provided by governments, social organizations, or professional institutions for elderly, disabled, and other vulnerable groups, including daily living assistance, basic care, psychological support, and social inclusion services, aiming to ensure quality of life and social participation.

At the same time, social care services are increasingly integrating digital technologies such as remote monitoring, smart caregiving devices, and data-driven management systems to improve efficiency and service quality. In parallel, the industry is moving toward more standardized and professionalized service models, with greater emphasis on workforce training, regulatory frameworks, and sustainable financing mechanisms to support long-term system development.

This report studies the global Social Care Service demand, key companies, and key regions.

This report is a detailed and comprehensive analysis of the world market for Social Care Service, and provides market size (US$ million) and Year-over-Year (YoY) growth, considering 2025 as the base year.
