Scope of the Report:

The strong growth in competitive shooting is driving the growth of the sports gun market. Sports guns are manufactured in large varieties, each differing from another on the basis of power source, barrel, propellant, projectile, ammunition, calibers, technology, cutting type, or legality in various countries across the world. A sports gun is relatively lighter and more compact than the other gun types; hence it is much easier to carry around. In addition, progress in end use industry applications is supporting the market currently.

The worldwide market for Sports Gun is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
