Abstracts

Tenant screening is the process of estimating potential renters for available apartment units. In general, the purpose of tenant screening is not to determine the eligibility of a tenant for a certain program, but to determine if the person is likely to be a good tenant. Widespread use of tenant screening services by property managers is a relatively recent practice.

SCOPE OF THE REPORT:

Key driver of the global tenant screening services market is the rapidly growing rental housing market. Due to the Great Recession, rate of unemployment has been high and income has declined, constraining household budgets and making people shift toward living in rental houses. Young adults are the potential age group to rent a house due to changes in studies, jobs, etc. Renting has significantly flourished in regions, especially in central cities, where land prices are high and low-income households are concentrated.

The global Tenant Screening Services market is valued at xx million USD in 2017 and is expected to reach xx million USD by the end of 2023, growing at a CAGR of xx% between 2017 and 2023.

The Asia-Pacific will occupy for more market share in following years, especially in China, also fast growing India and Southeast Asia regions.

North America, especially The United States, will still play an important role which cannot be ignored. Any changes from United States might affect the development trend of Tenant Screening Services.

Europe also play important roles in global market, with market size of xx million USD in 2017 and will be xx million USD in 2023, with a CAGR of xx%.

This report studies the Tenant Screening Services market status and outlook of Global and major regions, from angles of players, countries, product types and end industries; this report analyzes the top players in global market, and splits the Tenant Screening Services market by product type and applications/end industries.
