Most public toilets are located in small buildings with one or more toilets (or urinals) available for use by the general public, or by customers or employees of a business. Increasingly, both public and office toilets are accessible to people with disabilities. Public toilets are known by many other names depending on the country. Some examples are: “restroom,” “washroom,” “bathroom,” and “ladies’/women’s room” and “gents’/men’s room.”

Public toilets with Bathroom partitions are also found in Residential, offices, factories, and other places of work. Similarly, museums, cinemas, bars, restaurants, entertainment venues usually provide multi-user public toilets. Railroad stations, gas stations, rest stops and long distance public transport vehicles such as trains, ferries, and planes usually provide toilets for general use. In most cases, Bathroom Partitions will be used to ensure the users privacy. Figure Picture of Toilet Partitions.
