Abstracts

The global Travel Management Solutions market size is expected to reach $ million by 2029, rising at a market growth of % CAGR during the forecast period (2023-2029).

Business travel management, also known as business travel management, refers to the overall planning of business travel activities by enterprises, optimization of corporate travel policies and process specifications, unified management and control, and overall procurement of relevant resources, so as to reduce travel costs and improve efficiency in approval, travel, reimbursement, analysis and other processes without affecting business development and travel experience.

Travel management involves travel policy formulation, process specification execution, full process control, travel analysis, etc. Consumption scenarios usually include: air tickets, trains, hotels, cars, meals (dine-in or takeaway), subsidies, and other scenarios such as procurement and express delivery that are not often involved.
