Abstracts

The global Travel and Business Bags market size is expected to reach $ 92410 million by 2032, rising at a market growth of 9.0% CAGR during the forecast period (2026-2032).

Travel and Business Bags refer to a category of luggage designed specifically for the needs of travelers and professionals who are frequently on the go. These bags combine functionality, style, and practicality to accommodate essentials for both business and leisure trips. Designed for those who prioritize comfort and hands-free carrying, business backpacks are equipped with padded compartments for laptops, tablets, and other gadgets. For those who need to transport heavier loads, rolling bags come equipped with wheels and a telescoping handle. They're perfect for air travel or long commutes where walking distances can be significant.

In 2024, global Travel and Business Bags sales reached approximately 595,220 K Units, with an average global market price of around US$ 74.2 US$/Unit. Production capacity reached 650,000 K Units, with a gross profit margin of approximately 45%.

Global Travel and Business Bags key players include Louis Vuitton, MCM Worldwide, Samsonite, Hermes and Prada, etc. Global top five manufacturers hold a share over 25%.

The largest market is APAC, has a share about 45%, followed by North America and Europe, with around 24% and 25% market share respectively.

In terms of product, Duffle Bags is the largest segment, with a share over 30%. And in terms of application, the largest application is Offline Retail, has a share about 75%.

followed by Online Retail.

The rise of online shopping platforms provides consumers with a more convenient and rich shopping experience. Consumers can easily browse and compare travel bags and business bags of different brands and styles through e-commerce platforms, so as to choose the most suitable products for themselves. The development trend of offline retail is mainly influenced by market economy, consumer demand and other aspects. At present, the integration of offline and online has become the mainstream of consumer goods sales. The comprehensive popularity of e-commerce and the rise of Internet live broadcasts, and the integration of offline retail stores with online platforms, have significantly improved product sales.

Personalization and customized services will become an important trend in the future market. Consumers hope to show their unique taste and style through customized products. The combination of intelligence and Travel and Business Bags not only improves the competitiveness/characteristics of the product itself, but also meets the needs of some consumers for functional bags.
