Abstracts

Owing to health awareness, the millennial population has turned out to be the largest consumers of wine worldwide, leading to a higher wine production, proportionately driving the wine packaging market forward. Adding to that, wine has been identified to be the preferred drink on many occasions, owing to the availability of its wide variety catering to diverse audience groups.

SCOPE OF THE REPORT:

This report focuses on the Wine Packaging in global market, especially in North America, Europe and Asia-Pacific, South America, Middle East and Africa. This report categorizes the market based on manufacturers, regions, type and application. Glass bottles are considered by many to be an essential part of the wine experience, and moreover, glass bottles are commonly preferred owing to their excellent barrier properties that protect wine for an extended period. In this regard, glass is expected to account for a major proportion of the wine packaging market. Moreover, glass is highly preferred owing to its permeability factor and high resistance against leaching, which makes it a safer and viable option for storing wine compared to its alternatives.

The worldwide market for Wine Packaging is expected to grow at a CAGR of roughly xx% over the next five years, will reach xx million US$ in 2023, from xx million US$ in 2017, according to a new GIR (Global Info Research) study.
