Abstracts

According to our (Global Info Research) latest study, the global Personal Tax Advisors market size was valued at US$ 1380 million in 2024 and is forecast to a readjusted size of USD 1920 million by 2031 with a CAGR of 4.9% during review period.

Tax advisers can work in compliance, ensuring a client meets all tax obligations by preparing and submitting tax returns, tax computations and any other necessary forms. Alternatively, they may work in consultancy, advising clients on how to minimise their tax liabilities.
Increasing Complexity of Tax Laws: Tax laws and regulations were becoming more complex and subject to frequent changes in many countries. This complexity drove the demand for expert tax advisors who could help individuals navigate these intricate tax codes.
Digital Transformation: The use of technology in tax advisory services was on the rise. Personal tax advisors were leveraging tax software, data analytics, and automation tools to streamline their operations, improve accuracy, and offer more efficient services to clients.
Remote Work and Virtual Consultations: The COVID-19 pandemic accelerated the adoption of remote work and virtual consultations. Personal tax advisors started offering their services online, making it more convenient for clients to access their expertise from the comfort of their homes.
Increased Focus on Tax Planning: Clients were increasingly looking for proactive tax planning services to optimize their financial situations and minimize tax liabilities. Personal tax advisors were offering comprehensive tax planning strategies to help clients achieve their financial goals.
