Abstracts

Renewed demand from key overseas markets is resulting in steady growth for the Philippines' holiday decor and gifts industry.

The gradual recovery of the US from the global financial slump and sustained orders from EU members unaffected by the sovereign debt crisis are driving exports. Shipments to new destinations are also pushing up revenue.

The US is the sector's primary importer as it takes up more than half of output. The EU is the second-largest, accounting for nearly one-fourth.

This report focuses on the main types of holiday decor & gifts – Christmas trees and ornaments, Christmas lanterns, other holiday decorations, gifts and photo frames.
