Abstracts

The global Beauty Drinks market was valued at 2067.13 Million USD in 2021 and will grow with a CAGR of 6.07% from 2021 to 2027, based on HNY Research newly published report.

The prime objective of this report is to provide the insights on the post COVID-19 impact which will help market players in this field evaluate their business approaches. Also, this report covers market segmentation by major market vendors, types, applications/end users and geography(North America, East Asia, Europe, South Asia, Southeast Asia, Middle East, Africa, Oceania, South America).

Beauty drinks refer to both carbonated and non-carbonated beverages, which is used to retain natural beauty during aging. The beauty drinks contain various vitamins, minerals, amino acids, and antioxidants. It aids to support diets by encouraging metabolism. The global beauty drinks market is increasing rapidly. These drinks are formulated with hyaluronic acid, collagen, antioxidants, and Q10, which aids to improve suppleness and also help to minimize wrinkles. The increasing demand for Beauty Drinks drives the market. The increasing use of anti-aging products, increasing air pollution, busy lifestyle of the customers and rising number of health conscious consumers are main factors to propel the market. The increasing air pollution and hectic and stress-filled lifestyle often result in early ageing, which can improve the production of beauty drink. The consumer between 16-35 years of age (younger women), is expected to account for the largest market share during the forecast period. The convenience associated with beauty drinks, along with low or zero side effects of these drinks are propelling its demand among the younger women. The innovative distribution channels, such as e-commerce has also boosted the growth of the global beauty drinks consumption during the past few years. Europe accounted for around 35% of the market share during 2014 and is expected to maintain its leadership until the end of 2019. Beauty drinks are mostly consumed as a detoxifying and as an anti-ageing agent in this region.
