Abstracts

The global Gluten-Free Products market was valued at 551.26 Million USD in 2021 and will grow with a CAGR of 9.04% from 2021 to 2027, based on HNY Research newly published report.

The prime objective of this report is to provide the insights on the post COVID-19 impact which will help market players in this field evaluate their business approaches. Also, this report covers market segmentation by major market vendors, types, applications/end users and geography(North America, East Asia, Europe, South Asia, Southeast Asia, Middle East, Africa, Oceania, South America).

Gluten is a protein found in wheat, rye, barley or any of their crossbred varieties and derivatives. In baking, gluten is the binding agent within the flour that prevents the baked good from crumbling. As such, gluten is found in many processed and packaged product. A gluten free product does not contain any gluten or grains such as spelt-wheat, which is gluten-rich. In this report, gluten free products include Bakery Products, Pizzas & Pastas, Cereals & Snacks, Savories and Others.Overall, the gluten free products market performance is positive, despite the weak economic environment. Well over 15% of consumers are purchasing gluten free products as part of a healthy lifestyle not just due to dietary restrictions. Gluten free, once thought a fad, is now a global trend, and there are even more than 15% of households using gluten free products in North America.
